

stepology presents Tap Workshop with

Jason Samuels Smith

March 19th (Sat.), 2011 @ City Dance Studios

"an all-out sensation...the entertainment is intoxicating..." – Chicago Tribune

"...rhythmic brilliance..." – Chicago Sun Times

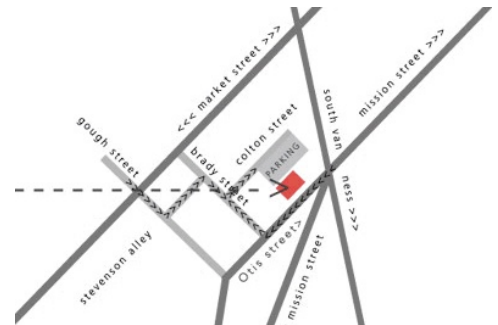

In less than a decade, Jason Samuels Smith (performer, choreographer, director) has emerged as a multi-talented leader in the Art form of Tap.

He received the 2009 Dance Magazine Award and won both an Emmy and American Choreography Award for "Outstanding Choreography" for the Opening number of the Jerry Lewis/MDA Telethon in a tribute to the late Gregory Hines. Mr. Samuels-Smith was also awarded the Gregory Hines Humanitarian Award; a Certificate of Appreciation by the City of Los Angeles for creating the First Annual Los Angeles Tap Festival in 2003; a Proclamation declaring April 23rd "Jason Samuels Day" from the City of Shreveport, Louisiana; the "Ivy of Education" from Brainerd Institute; and the "President Kenny Award" from Stony Brook. He was also the recipient of an Alpert/MacDowell Residency Award, an Arts International Grant and has received funding for the creation of new works by the National Performance Network and MAP fund among others.
